HONOR PAID ALL VETERINARY MEN

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 1.—(By the Associated Press.)—The practicing veterinarian was described by Dr. J. G. Fernyough of Richmond, Va., as the "pillar of the profession." In his address delivered here today at the convention of the American Veterinary Medical Association. In speaking of the relations between the practitioner and the veterinarian holding public office, Dr. Fernyough said it was unethical that the veterinary official be little or ignore the veterinarian who gives his life's work to the practice of his profession.

"Co-operation between the practicing veterinarian and the one holding a public office or college chair was advanced by Dr. Fernyough, though as the best means of improving not only the veterinary profession but also the veterinarian's standing in every day life. It is the duty of veterinarians holding public office to work for the adoption of legislative measures to protect the practitioner against unequal treatment of the profession, he added.

"The man who does things" said Dr. Fernyough, "is the man who really develops his country and assures his followers success. You men who are spending your time in actual practice are the pillars of the profession, because you are taking the risk when you carry in to practice the theories of the laboratory man. It takes courage combined with knowledge, skill and wisdom to make a successful veterinary practitioner."

REACTION EXPECTED ON HERRIN CITIZENS

MARION, Ill., Sept. 1.—(By the Associated Press.)—With the first man indicted as a result of the mine war investigation and the defendant held in jail without bond, prosecuting officials expressed confidence today that the effect would show a reaction on the residents of Williamson County and stir up a feeling of apprehension of many who have been reluctant in giving information to the grand jury of the murders last June of non-union miners at the Lester strip mine near Herrin.

Attorney General E. J. Brundage, who is conducting the investigation before the grand jury, announced last night that he would oppose any legal action brought in an attempt to release on bond any of the persons indicted for murder in connection with the Herrin mine war.

PROBE OF DENVER POLICE PLANNED

Additional Disclosures of Big Swindling Ring Made by District Attorney.

DENVER, Sept. 1.—Announcement that there will be a grand jury investigation of the Denver police department, filing of suit by one of the victims of the alleged swindlers caught in last week's raid here in an effort to recover money the victim claims to have lost, and disclosure of additional information as to the extent of the "bunko ring" featured developments recorded today by District Attorney Philip S. Vance's campaign against the alleged swindlers.

The raid, which resulted in the arrest of more than thirty alleged confidence men who were said to be members of a "million dollar swindle ring" was made by police's assistants and state rangers without the aid of the police.

The district attorney refused to comment on the plans for the grand jury investigation into the police department.

A Nitche of Houston, Tex., yesterday filed suit in the District Court to recover $25,000 from the men under arrest. He claims he lost that amount in a stock deal, engineered by the alleged ring. He also asked for an attachment against all of the property of the prisoners, which it granted would tie up about $150,000 worth of property, according to District Attorney Vance.

It was disclosed that Adolph Duff, characterized by the district attorney as the man "behind the scenes in the swindle ring" had a list identical with one prepared and used by the district attorney at a meeting at which final plans were made for the raid. Officials asserted that had Duff's arrest been delayed thirty minutes all the other men sought would have been informed and probably would have escaped.

COTTON INTERESTS IN EUROPE REPORTED ACTIVE

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1.—British cotton interests are "profoundly pessimistic" of the future, while the French consider their prospects bright, according to a report to the Commerce Department today from Edward T. Rickard, chief of the textile division, who is making a survey of conditions abroad.

The French, he reported, are well satisfied because their mills are occupied and prices in general have not declined in sympathy with other markets. French manufacturers are looking forward to a continuance of the present activity throughout the balance of 1922.

In the spinning sections of Great Britain mills were said to be in a somewhat worse position than the grading plant although their trade returns for July showed cotton goods exports to be the highest in two and one-half years.

WINFIELD BOND ISSUE PROPOSED

Next Wednesday to Consider Plans.

The purpose of the meeting will include a decision as to the advisability of bringing the issue before the voters at an election to be held in the future. The proportioning of the improvement fund among the various roads of the district will also be an important part of the discussion.

Under the present valuation of property it is possible to vote a bond issue of $212,914.47.

DECISION EXPECTED WITHIN TWO WEEKS

CHICAGO, Sept. 1.—Spokesmen for the 105 railroads involved in the hearing on the petition of 400,000 maintenance of way men for a minimum wage of 48 cents an hour had the turn before the United States Railroad Labor Board today.

The board is expected to hand down its decision in the case within the next two weeks.

The trackmen finished their presentations yesterday. The carriers expected to present their side of the case during the day. Jacob Aaronson, attorney for the New York Central lines, was chosen by the carriers as their first spokesman. John G. Walser, executive secretary of the Bureau of Information of the eastern roads who planned to address the board in behalf of the carriers, was called to New York by illness in his family.

GRIFFITH'S BODY MAY BE EXHUMED

Cause of Irish Leader's Death
Believed by Many to Have Been Poison.

DUBLIN, Sept. 1.—(By the Associated Press.)—Reports that Arthur Griffith was poisoned circulated in Dublin at the time of his death three weeks ago have again become prevalent. Inquiry among the physicians who attend the Daily Express has evoked the categorical statement that he died from natural causes, probably from heart disease.

A leading physician, however, informed the correspondent that there is some talk of exhuming the body and holding an autopsy for the purpose of clearing away any doubt as to the cause of his death.

Four Courts Attacked

LONDON, Sept. 1.—A vigorous attack on the Four Courts Building in Dublin, scene of Rory O'Connor's spectacular stand against the Free State troops, was started this morning, according to a dispatch to the press association. The message gave no details but it is assumed here that the Republicans are attacking the provisional government troops guarding the ruins of the building.

EINSTEIN IDEA WILL GET TEST

Total Eclipse September 21
Will Test Noted Rela-tivity Theory.

CHICAGO, Ill., Sept. 1.—New tests of the validity of Einstein's theory of relativity will be possible with the total solar eclipse on September 21, which will darken the eastern coast of Africa, Australia and a number of South Pacific islands, according to Professor Edwin B. Frost of the University of Chicago and director of the Yerkes Observatory.

The theory requires, he said, that the rays of light from a distant star should be bent out of their straight path when they pass within the field of attraction of a great body like the sun. But stars whose light passes close to the rim of the blazing sun cannot be photographed except on these rare occasions when the moon obscures the sun.

The path of the sun, in its annual sweep around the sky, is dotted with many stars which would serve for the test, but only those can be used which nearly graze the sun at the moment of eclipse, Professor Frost said.

Accordingly, a photograph is made of these stars at a time of the year when the sun is in a different part of the sky. On such photographs, taken at night with the same instrument that is used at the eclipse, the distances between the critical stars are measured to the ten-thousandth of an inch.

At the moment of the eclipse these stars will lie on opposite sides of the sun. Hence, when this photograph is measured, the distances between the corresponding stars should be slightly greater than on the plates taken some weeks before or after the eclipse, and which were not disturbed by the sun's presence, according to Professor Frost.

The observations by two English parties of the eclipse of May 29, 1919, in Brazil and in Liberia, in this way yielded results which have been regarded as giving the strongest physical confirmation of Einstein's theory, says Professor Frost.

Several parties of astronomers are locating stations in the path of the shadow and will make investigations along this line. It will not be until some months after the eclipse that they shall know whether the measurements confirm the theory for this eclipse. Many astronomers predict the eclipse of 1923 will fail to confirm the results of that of 1919.
